'We are thinking about the value 'DIVERSITY' this half term...

Christmas Production

Our school nativity was a joy to watch, as it is every year. The children acted, sang and danced with such enthusiasm and with huge smiles on their faces. I'm sure you will agree that the children did a fantastic job. A big thank you to all of my staff and their hard work over the past few weeks and thank you to the Parents Association for organising refreshments and creating some beautiful hampers from your generous donations.

Christmas Carol service and Craft Fair

The children sang their hearts out, thank you for attending and buying their Christmas crafts, all monies raised will go towards purchasing more books for the school library.

Reminder

No minisports and football club on next week! No tutor groups either.

Christmas Post

The last day for the children to bring in cards is on Thursday, to ensure we have time to get all the cards delivered to the children!

We have one more week to go before Christmas arrives and we have lots of fun activities planned. The children are naturally getting tired after a busy and long half term. Have a lovely weekend,
